Learning Reflection

Due: no later than 5pm, Wednesday, 5/6/2015

* SUMBIT YOUR ESSAY AS A WORD DOC ATTACHED TO AN EMAIL TO CWILLSE@GMU.EDU

This is a chance for you to reflect on your work this semester. Your statement must include all of the following five sections. Clearly label each section (A, B, etc.) so I can follow. One paragraph for each question is sufficient.

A.

Describe the most significant, important and/or interesting thing you learned this semester. You can talk about something new you learned, the ways a discussion or reading expanded your understanding of something, how the course fits in with your overall studies at Mason, etc.

B.

Reflect on your experience of doing the group presentation. How did the experience of doing independent research and then teaming up challenge or expand your learning? Also, describe your individual contributions to the group presentation.

C.

Not including the group presentation, describe what you think was the strongest aspect of your performance this semester and why.

D.

What aspect of your performance would you like to work toward improving in your future coursework or other endeavors? How might you go about this?

E.

What recommendations do you have for me to improve this course when I teach it again?
