

CULT 320: GLOBALIZATION AND CULTURE

Midterm Study Guide

Midterm Exam: Wednesday, March 4, 2015

- The midterm will consist of two parts:
  - (1) identifications of key terms, in which you must explain the concept in your own words;
  - (2) two short essay response questions.
- You must bring a blank exam book the day of the exam.
- The exam is open note, but you cannot bring copies of readings. If you take notes on an electronic device, you must print them out. No devices can be used during the exam.
- You will have the full class period for taking the exam.

Readings and Media

- All required readings for Weeks 1 through 6
- All in-class materials: lectures, activities, slides, videos

Key Terms and Concepts

- Globalization
- Dimensions of globalization
- Culture
- Colonialism and imperialism
- Eurocentrism
- Historical contingency, accident, conjuncture
- Biological regime
- Warfare in Europe
- French Revolution
- Modern concept of nation-state
- Sovereignty
- mercantilism
- Global/world economy
- Industrial revolution
- Slavery and industrialization
- Neo-colonialism
- Jefferson, Mason, and slavery
- History and class struggle
- Bourgeoisie and the proletariat
- Commodity
- use value and exchange value
- surplus value
- labor power and wage labor
- social reproduction
- reserve army
- neoliberalism as theory and practice
- Keynesianism
- Accumulation by dispossession
- Tourism, service and consumption economies
- “yellow peril”
- supply chains and value chains